ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. The Regional Staff is appreciative of Headquarters calling attention to the apparent contradiction in EGFT-12538 and EGFA-47806. We agree that deception marked in the conclusion column of EGFT-12538 conveys to the consumer of the quarterly report the idea of an unfavorable SGSWIRL conclusion. In this instance the SGSWIRL examination was favorably concluded; how CAINFER did attempt to practice deception concerning having revealed his contacts with LNHARP intelligence. Interrogation resulted in an admission that he had in fact told his daughter about his contacts with us. There was deception during this interrogation and EGFT-12538 probably should have reflected resolved deception as opposed to deception or no deception. Deception was marked in the conclusion column because Subject had practiced it during the testing and we felt that this was significant and should now go unrecorded for statistical purposes.

2. We regret this misinterpretation and plan to be a little more expansive in the conclusion column of these reports by using such phrases as: continued or unresolved deception and attempted or resolved deception. This we feel will be more precise and yet brief.
